President's Comments:

Williams discussed Hurricane Matthew's impact on our community and how the school pulled together to accommodate the needs of all of the evacuated families; a food bank/ supply donation center was set up at the school and distributed to families within the community. Dr. Carmichael was here at the shelter while his home was sustaining damage. He will need clean-up assistance and we have all offered to lend our support for him as needed.

Treasurer's Report:

Williams reminded Coaches to review the Treasurer's Report for discrepancies/ questions/ issues pertaining to their team accounts.

- Turner questioned a “Banana purchase” as he was under the impression they should have been a trade out with WD signage. Williams stated that the bananas needed to be purchased for that particular date because WD was out of them.
  - Williams needs to verify that a sign is up for Winn Dixie.

Meeting Minutes:

Meeting Minutes from September General Meeting provided via booster email and also on Facebook for review.

- No discrepancies/ questions presented for discussion.
